

MEENA MURTHY KAKKAR

Design Head & Partner | Envisage

envisage

Meena Murthy Kakkar is the Design Head at Envisage, an interior and architecture firm specializing in Design and Build projects. Meena pursued Bachelors of Architecture from School of Planning and Architecture, Delhi, after which started her design quest while bagging accolades in the field as a designer and teacher. Sharing her incredible knowledge with the young aspirants, she has been teaching Design at SPA, Delhi since 2008.

With her 15 years of design experience, Meena paved a glorious path for Envisage which is embedded with robust design principles and an organised curriculum. Her oeuvre is predicated on a strategical and conceptual design vocabulary. As a designer, she believes in the glory of human creativity which is inimitable. Being adept in residential, commercial and corporate architecture and interiors, Meena can articulate multiple solutions to every given testing situation.

She has designed the India Post Payments Bank for the Government of India which was inaugurated by the Honourable PM Narendra Modi. Over her 10 years of teaching career, she has conducted several seminars on AI and Architecture, Interior Design and a Series of Lectures on various 'Career Roads post B. Arch' for the students.

She has also been instrumental in initiating the placement process for B.Arch students at SPA and conducts corporate training workshops, while also being a mentor for research projects.

Meena can talk about design at length and has been a spokesperson at prominent industry events. Her work has been published in The Times of India, Economic Times, The Financial Express, The Pioneer, Architectural Digest, India Today Home, Outlook and Beautiful Homes, amongst many others.
